—There was but little doing in the Mayor's Court yesterday. The only case was that of Greeley Milligan and Stokes Crump, both colored, arraigned for an affray and fined $5 each.

—Junius Allen, col., was committed to jail yesterday on the mittimus of Justice of the Peace B. A. Perry, of House's Creek township. He was charged with an indecent exposure of his person.

—Yesterday afternoon the remains of Mrs. R. S. Perry and two children, the wife and children of our townsman, R. S. Perry, Esq., were interred in Oakwood cemetery. They were brought from an old family burying ground in Wake Forest township.

Now and Then.

Five years ago no one in this section of the State ever thought of a wheat drill or a hay rake. Cotton, and cotton only, was thought of, and on this one article our people depended for food and raiment, supposing that this mighty king would call to his command everything necessary. The folly of this supposition is now developing itself and the sad effect of adhering to such an erroneous theory showed plainly at our State Fair. There was never such a demand for blooded cows, sheep and hogs. Both James Norwood and Dr. Backnall sold every Berkshire pig they had, and could have sold double as many; while old farmers, who had never before dreamed of wanting anything but cotton, were anxiously on the lookout for grass seed, hay rakes, wheat drills and other improved implements. Col. Underwood, of Baltimore, who stands at the head of the profession in such things, says at no fair ever held in this State has the demand been so great. He left yesterday, and his room at the Yarrowburgh House has been a perfect rendezvous for those on the anxious bench. Cotton at ten cents has put our people to thinking, and if the ball now in motion is kept rolling, Col. Underwood thinks, North Carolina, so long in the background, will soon go ahead of Delaware and Maryland. God speed her day.

Durham Dots.

From a Durham correspondent, who writes under the date of the 26th instant, we get the following items:

Donald Gee, a young man about 20 years of age, was caught in the machinery of a cotton gin, at work near Durham, and mashed to death, Wednesday afternoon.

Wednesday night a gang of negroes broke into the house of Mr. M. Shepherd, about five miles from the village, and badly beat him and his wife. The screams of the victims frightened the gang off before any material harm was done, who took with them $16 in currency.

Meeting of the T. and V. Club—Address of C. M. Busbee, Esq.

A large and attentive audience assembled at Metropolitan Hall last night to listen to Charles M. Busbee, Esq., who, by invitation of the Mechanics' Tilden and Vance Club, addressed them in stirring strains of eloquence and unanswerable argument. Mr. Busbee in a speech of over an hour's length entertained and interested his audience by giving somewhat in detail the figures which show the wholesale corruption of the Republican party; their systematic peculations and waste of the people's money; their persistency in perpetuating their hold on the government by the base and ignoble means of false issues. He gave the figures which represent the enormous expenditures by the government, amounting to millions upon top of millions. He proved that a continuance of power by the Republican party would be the very death of civil liberty and unparalleled oppression of the people of the United States. He gave a sad history of the present reign of terror in South Carolina. He urged ever lover of his country to do his full duty in the present canvass. He also explained the importance of the constitutional amendments.

Mr. Busbee is an earnest speaker, and held his hearers in attentive silence while he told them political truths which every freeman ought to know and practice in this day of attempted destruction of their liberties by the adherents of Radicalism.

At the conclusion of Mr. Busbee's address the club proceeded to the transaction of business. Fifteen new names were added to the roll of membership.

On motion, Messrs. John Weir, J. D. Thompson and Thomas Scarlett were appointed a committee to wait on Hon. A. S. Merrimon and Major Searn Gales and invite them to address the club next Thursday evening, at Metropolitan Hall.

Upon adjourning the club gave three hearty cheers for the orator of the evening, C. M. Busbee.

Barion's Creek.

A large quantity of spiritus frumenti was imbibed early in the morning and consequently the candidates suffered frequent interruptions. Messrs. Rogers and White, candidates for Register of Deeds, opened the ball by their announcement.

Sheriff Dunn was next called and answered in an excellent ten minutes' talk. He charged Nowell, his opponent, as deputy of Tim. Lee, with knowing that he (Tim. Lee) was a defaulter and that he never opened his mouth when he knew Tim was squandering the people's money. Nowell, in substance, admitted this to be so.

Geo. H. Snow, candidate for the Senate, although in the stronghold of "Honest Bob," didn't seem in the least disconcerted, but made sundry home-thrusts at Barton's Creek wily resident. He has completely forced "Honest Bob" to withdraw his former proposition, i. e. to give $500 to any man who would prove that he had run negroes with dogs, for he produced the affidavits and brought forward the men who know "Honest Bob" to have been engaged in this occupation.

"Honest Bob's" reply was the same speech he has made all during the canvass.

The gentlemen who gave us the above information left the ground long before the speaking had concluded, therefore our report is a very meagre one.

The candidates speak in New Light township to-day.

Col. W. J. Green, of Warren county, is in the city.

J. H. Mills, Esq., the orphan's friend, passed through this city yesterday en route to Asheville.

We are glad to announce that Maj. W. W. Vass has recovered sufficiently to be out on the streets.

We are pleased to learn that Jones Watson, Esq., of Chapel Hill, is recovering from his severe attack of diphtheria.

Col. J. P. H. Russ, of this city, was to have addressed the Tilden and Vance club of Durham last night. If he did, we are well assured that the Durhamites heard an excellent speech.

Hon. T. F. Bayard—An Invitation Reluctantly Declined.

It has been already announced in the News that the Democrats and Conservatives of Warren county have a grand rally and barbecue at Cawthorne's Grove, near Warrenton, Nov. 1st. Among the prominent gentlemen invited to be present was Hon. T. F. Bayard, one of Delaware's able and distinguished United States Senators, who writes the following letter to Hon. William Eaton and Col. W. J. Green, committee, regretting his inability to accept the invitation:

WILMINGTON, DEL., Oct. 14, '76.
To Messrs. W. J. Green and William Eaton, Warrenton, N. C.:

DEAR FRIENDS—During my absence on political duty in India on your invitation to attend and address a meeting of your people November 2d, I arrived. If I could possibly accept your invitation I should do so with pleasure, and most gladly take counsel with your people in this most important crisis. How the citizens of North Carolina can hesitate to condemn overwhelmingly at the polls the Radical party and its candidates I cannot comprehend. Every citizen of North Carolina should feel that the only hope of success in the political degradation and socialism of the people of the Southern States.

The victory we have achieved in Indiana places the Radicals in jeopardy in every Northern State, and forbids their concentration. I am animated with the hope that the long night of your misfortune is almost over, and that the day of a renewed prosperity is about to dawn upon a restored Union of co-equal States. Yours respectfully,

T. F. BAYARD.

Adelaide Vance Combination.

This dramatic troupe is shortly to visit this city. Beyond doubt it will draw well. Anything with the name of Vance on it is bound to take in this latitude. Miss Adelaide Vance is the leading lady, and first appears here in "Cross and Crown." This is the second off the New York Mercury is credited with giving her:

"Miss Adelaide Vance was the special protégée of the late Charlotte Cushman, and was regarded by her as the most promising lady stage presence of our stage. She has created a genuine dramatic sensation by her artistic performance. Miss Vance has appeared to large and fashionable audiences. In Barley Campbell's new play, 'Cross and Crown,' as the heroine she displayed a fine stage presence, a handsome, intellectual face, and exquisite costumes. In the pathetic and emotional scenes of the play, Miss Vance fairly magnetized her auditors, and evoked the most enthusiastic approval. She repeated her splendid triumph on the 12th and 13th, and appeared as 'Meg Merrilies' on the 14th, in which role she achieved a brilliant success. During the play the teachings of her friend and instructor were made apparent by the similarity of the tone, gesture and method exhibited by the new candidate for his rhotic fame. Her entire portrayal proved an agreeable artistic surprise."

The Emory Case.

This case came up yesterday morning in Justice of the Peace Magnin's Court. It has been before reported in the News. On Friday of the fair Clinton Emory, a special policeman, found it necessary to club, in self-defense, Cameron Wilcox a drunken and disorderly negro whom he had been requested to remove from the grounds. Day before yesterday it was reported to Justice Magnin that Wilcox was about to die of the blows given him on the head. Emory was arrested, but the trial did not come off until this morning. The weight of testimony went to show that Emory acted in self-defense and in the performance of a sworn duty. Dr. J. B. Dunn testified that Wilcox was in no apparent danger of his life. Justice Magnin saw fit to bind Emory over to the next term of our Superior Court in a bond of $1,000, which he at once gave. Dr. J. B. Dunn and J. M. Harris, Esq., becoming his sureties. John Gitting, Esq., prosecuted and W. H. Paes, Esq., defended. Dr. Dunn made the examination of the injured man at the request of the defendant.

Tuesday, 7th November.

Is the day of election for President, Congressmen, Governor, Legislature and County Officers.

Every voter must register his name before the day of election, unless he happens to become 21 years old on day of election, then, and in that case, he can register on election day. Let every Democrat be careful to see that his name is on the registration books before election day.

Hunting.

We learn from sportsmen that there is an abundance of partridges in this vicinity. Wednesday a prominent Baltimore, who is a crack shot and C. B. Edwards, Esq., went out and in a few hours succeeded in bagging fifty and a rabbit, the gentleman of the cloth leading his companion ten.

Our County Commissioners.

The gentlemen composing the Board of County Commissioners deserve the thanks of the people of this county for their faithful discharge of the duties of their office. They are before the people for re-election. Their record is clear and pure. No jobs have they permitted, and there is no whisper of any charge against their personal and official integrity. The county finances under their management have been straightened and the county is out of debt, and its orders at par. They have reduced the county taxes this year over eight cents on the hundred dollars valuation. It will be a disgrace to the county if they are not re-elected.

A glance at the Radical candidates for commissioners is sufficient to disgust any decent man. If they are elected race-ality will flourish in the administration of the affairs of the county, taxes will increase and the county again be saddled with fraudulent debts. We understand that the character of one of these Radical candidates is so bad that the Radicals themselves are about to take his name off their ticket, as not even a decent Radical in the county can be found who will vote for him.

The good name and credit and prosperity of the county depends very much upon the men who constitute its Board of Commissioners. We believe that the old Board will obtain what they deserve, that is an endorsement at the polls on the 7th of November. Wake county can't afford to lose their services.

The Vote of Wake County.

In 1874 the total average vote in Wake county for the legislative ticket was 7,405. Outside of Raleigh township an average vote of 2,841 was cast for the Democratic candidates to 2,334 for the Republican candidates. In this township the average vote was 923 Democratic and 1,309 Republican.

There is no reason why we should not do better this year. There never has been before such enthusiasm and unanimity among the white people of the county. Much will of course depend upon the vote of this city. We are assured that our ticket will come to Raleigh from the country townships with certainly as large and probably a large majority than in 1874. Can the Republicans of this township overcome a country majority for the Democrats of 500? We believe not. This responsibility rests upon the Democrats of this city. We urge them to do their full duty. With a full registration of our strength, and a full vote on the day of election, we need not fear the result.

Bogus Papers.

Chairmen of County Boards of Commissioners and Registers of Deeds throughout the State have received blank forms for election returns, accompanied by the following circular letter, purporting to come from the office of Secretary of State:

SECRETARY'S OFFICE.
Raleigh, Oct. 12, 1876.

The enclosed form for returns is recommended to you for adoption. Each precinct should be supplied with it. If your County Commissioners will not have it printed you can have it written after the manner in which this is printed. The returns will then be sent in complete and perfect.

This whole thing is a fraud. Secretary of State Howerton informs us that he has sent no blank forms for election returns, and repudiates the whole concern. He is receiving letters every day from parties making inquiries into the matter. He has written to the Register of Deeds of Rowan county, who has received a batch of them, for a copy of the pretended official forms for election returns. It is thought that this is another swindling Radical dodge.

Postponed.

Owing to the misfit of several of the iron bands to be used in the splicing of the monster flag-pole of the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club, the raising did not take place yesterday afternoon, but was unavoidably postponed until this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when the ceremony will certainly take place. This disappointment is to be regretted as a large crowd, including a number of ladies, had assembled. There will be no further delay, and we hope there will be another large turnout this afternoon.

Change of Schedule.

On and after next Monday the schedule of the mail train on the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroad will be as follows: Leave at 6:30 a. m. and returning arrive at 6:30 p. m. This change does not affect the schedule in operation on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad.

James P. Hayes has a large order for furs and will pay the highest cash price in the State this season. Send for price list. Box 95.

Wants Redemption.

A day or two since Gov. Bragden received a letter from a Mr. T. D. Powell, of Cairo, Georgia, enclosing about $114 of North Carolina Revolutionary currency, which was paid to his father for services as a soldier in that war, asking if the great State of North Carolina would not redeem these promises to pay unselfish patriotism. Nearly all of the bills are of the $5 denomination and bear a promise of being redeemed in Spanish silver dollars. As specimens of 'typographical antiquity' they are decidedly interesting. They are about the size of an average apothecary's label, square in shape, the paper being about an eighth of an inch thick. All of them were printed between the years 1776 and 1780 by J. S. and T. Davis, of Newbern, and Hugh Walker, of Wilmington. All of them have mottoes, such as "The Rising States," "Dulce pro Patria Mori," "American Union Forever," "American Virtue Triumphant," "Blessed be the New World," "Quid non Virtus Efficiendum." This last motto has received a liberal translation at the hands of a Durham friend, whose mind seems to run on tobacco rather than the classics. He says that it means literally, "Chew good tobacco or you'll never be virtuous."

Mr. Powell thinks that he should have the face value of these old relics of inflation, but would try to get the consent of his mind to take eighty-five cents on the dollar.

Cotton Gin Burned.

Yesterday afternoon about one o'clock, the steam cotton gin on the farm of W. G. Upchurch, about 3 miles from this city, was destroyed by fire. Fifteen bales of cotton, 3,000 bushels of seed, a wheat thrasher, a lot of bagging, ties and sundry other articles were consumed. The loss is estimated at $3,500 and the insurance is $1,000, in the City Fire Insurance Company, of Richmond, Va. The gin house caught on the roof by a spark from the smoke-stack. Nothing was saved. Mr. Upchurch is one of our most popular citizens, and his loss is greatly regretted by a large circle of friends.

Japanese Educational Commission.

Yesterday afternoon Fugui Mero Taraka, Taizo Abe and Taretaro Megawa, the commission sent to this country by the Japanese government to study our educational system, arrived in this city and took rooms at the Yarrowburgh House. They will remain in the city to-day and will visit our schools. They have visited all of the larger northern cities, and will return to Philadelphia by Sunday. We hope that the principals of the flourishing schools here will afford these gentlemen every facility to prosecute their mission.

More Settle Votes Lost.

Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Roak, of Ashe county, brought Franklin Little, white, to the penitentiary. He was convicted of larceny and has a term of three years.

Sheriff David Lottin, of Davidson county, brought a couple of Africans: Thos. Hendrick, larceny, four years; James Barber, attempted rape, five years. Hendricks is on his second term, having recently finished a two years' term for larceny. Both of these gentlemen report their counties as all right for Tilden, Vance and reform.

The Loss at the Late Fair.

We were informed yesterday that the loss to our respected fellow-townsmen, R. G. Lewis, Esq., in the burning of his tannery Wednesday morning, is at least $5,000 over and above the $2,500 insurance on the property. The opinion generally adopted is that the fire was the work of an incendiary, but as yet no clue has been obtained to the perpetrator of the infamous deed.

Chatham News.

Deputy Sheriff Riddle, of Chatham county, passed up the North Carolina Railroad for the Salisbury Fair the other day. He reports everything all right in Chatham. He said that the ticket would be elected by an increased majority, and that Sheriff Taylor will lead the ticket.

Unequalled in effectiveness, unapproached in cheapness, and unrivaled in popularity is Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup. 25 cents per bottle; large size, 50 cents.

To my Customers and Friends: I receive three times per week—Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday night—Hooker's celebrated Sausage, which is offered to those desiring it at reasonable prices. Persons

TILDEN'S PROSPECTS.

NECESSARY TO CARRY THE STATE.
ST. THIS CERTAIN FOR TILDEN.

Connecticut	6	Mississippi	8
New York	35	Louisiana	12
New Jersey	9	Kentucky	14
Delaware	3	Tennessee	14
Virginia	8	Arkansas	14
West Virginia	5	Alabama	14
North Carolina	10	Florida	14
Georgia	11	Oregon	14
California	10
Total	140

STATES PROBABLY FOR TILDEN.

For	4	South Carolina	7
White	10	California	14
Total	14

STATES PROBABLY FOR TILDEN.

Michigan	11	Illinois	14
Massachusetts	11	Pennsylvania	14
New Hampshire	3

This shows that we must succeed in our programme. The statement is founded upon the most careful estimate of last year's general elections, and the results of the recent October count.

Indiana was the key to the position. The Republican party made the recent election in that State their battle field for the national contest, as they needed not only the electoral vote of Indiana, but also the prestige of a preliminary triumph in October to influence the vote in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, and without such influence could not hope to carry these all-important States. And yet, understanding the situation perfectly as they did, and led by such able men as Morton, Chandler, Blaine and company, and with immense funds at hand to debauch such voters as could be bought up—funds wrung from the earnings of 90,000 officeholders—they were yet defeated on the battle ground of their own choosing. This assures us of that same in November.

We may with certainty rely upon New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Mr. Magone, the chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee of New York, says of these three leading States:

They cannot be justly classed as doubtful. Take New York in the first place. Two years ago we carried it by over 60,000 majority. Last year, notwithstanding the serious defection in several counties growing out of the great canal campaign, and despite the great loss in the New York city vote arising from local troubles, we carried the State by about 14,000 majority. Now the disaffection in the canal counties has been more than overcome by citizens seeing that rogues have been cut off from the public crib at which they have hitherto fed, and their own interests have been promoted thereby. In New York city and Brooklyn we expect a large majority compared with the meagre majority of 30,000 last year.

"New Jersey is a decidedly Democratic State. There is no doubt whatever that we shall carry it, and as to Connecticut our advisers from the Nutmeg State assure us of a large majority. The fact that the Republicans themselves do not feel certain about Connecticut is clearly evidenced by their claiming the recent town elections as having been in their favor, while in reality we have carried nine towns more than we ever did before.

North Carolina is relied upon by our friends North. Shall we disappoint them? Let the white men of the State go to the polls on the 7th of November, and give an answer that will wake the echoes after joy. To do it we must work with increasing energy and activity from this hour until the close of the 7th day of November.

REGISTER, Register, Register.

THE electoral ticket to be voted in the ensuing election must contain the names of the two electors for the State at large, and all the eight Congressional District electors. Don't forget this.

ONLY a few days are left for registration.

POLICY OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY TOWARD THE SOUTH.

We commend to every thoughtful Southern man these words from ex-Gov. Joel Parker, of New Jersey:

"The Republican party came into power upon the tidal wave of a great moral question which had long agitated the public mind, but which has happily been settled. Many sincere men were enlisted in its ranks, but the men who founded the party for the purpose of abolishing slavery, now that the object has been accomplished, have ceased to direct its fortunes and its present leaders care nothing about the moral aspect of any question involved, but run the party only for success; their chief object being to hold on to the offices."

"Hence the policy of the Republican party toward the South since the close of the war. Turning a deaf ear to the exhortations of Mr. Lincoln, who in his last days counseled charity and the exercise of a christian spirit, they for years held the white people of a whole section in bondage under the heel of military power, and they even now transferring troops for that object—and all this without reason, and solely for political effect."

"The policy of the Republican party toward the South since the war has no parallel for heartlessness and cruelty. Posterity will regard it with horror and disgust, and history will stigmatize it as the great political crime of the century. The scheme of layonet rule was devised for party purposes without regard to the welfare of the people, North or South—it was oppressive to the South and ruinous to the North."

"A change is now urgently demanded, not only in the administration but in party supremacy. The party in power under which the abuses originated cannot reform those abuses."

WE expect to carry the First Congressional District by 1200 majority, at the very least; the Third District by 1,700; the Fourth by 1,800; the Fifth by 2,500; the Sixth by 4,000; the Seventh by 5,000; and the Eighth by 4,000—an aggregate of 10,000 on the entire Congressional vote of the State, or an increase of 6,000 on the Congressional vote of '74.

REGISTER, Register, Register.

Gov. HOLDEN attempts to escape the issue of veracity raised between himself and Chief Justice Pearson. It is too late; and too thin. You may change your politics; you may change your religion; but you must change your written, published words. Follow the Republican advice, and stick up to your words.

VOTE for the Amendments, and lighten your taxes.

YESTERDAY was the day fixed for the Republican barbecue at Asheville, as much talked about. Among the speakers expected were J. G. Blaine, Edward McPherson, J. A. Logan, W. W. Holden, C. L. Cobb, S. F. Phillips, A. W. George, Thos. B. Keogh, O. B. Duckery and T. L. Hargrove.

If you do not register your name you will lose your vote.

THE electoral ticket to be voted in the ensuing election must contain the names of the two electors for the State at large, and all the eight Congressional District electors. Don't forget this.

REGISTER your name to-day. Don't put it off. Hell is paved with good intentions.

VOTE for the Amendments, and improve the Constitution.

Do not be deceived by bogus tickets.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The New York Journal of Commerce has an editorial on the "blessings of a small army." Sitting Bull knows all about it, if South Carolina don't.

Our private advisers satisfy us that Tilden stands an even chance for carrying Pennsylvania and Illinois, and that his prospects are fair in Michigan and New Hampshire.—N. Y. Sun.

Philadelphia Item.—"The tug is now to come over the States of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, all of which States have Democratic Governors one of whom is the party candidate for Presidency and one of the most experienced organizers of victory in modern politics."

Richmond Whig.—"Let it be kept before the eight millions of voters that this great Presidential contest is daily narrowing down to a struggle between the people and the army of federal officeholders who are using the organization of the government for their own exclusive use and benefit."

The Hon. Henry S. Davies enjoyed the sublimity of the "Artful Dodger" up to the Credit-Mobilier investigation. Since ex-Speaker Blaine called Cox to the chair, and asked that the committee for the investigation of the great American swindle have a majority of Democrats, that title by lined descent has been transferred to him.

General Hampton addressed at least 500 people at Graniteville. His reception was beyond comparison. He delivered one of his telling speeches, and the effect among the colored portion of the audience, which was very large is manifest. At the close of his remarks, he was lifted bodily in the arms of several colored men and kindly placed in his carriage.—Columbia Register.

The Charlotte Observer of Friday learns that Billy Smith has been up in Burke county travelling around alone, occasionally making speeches in the backwoods and scattering money most lavishly. He left Statesville Wednesday in a private conveyance for a trip through Wilkes and perhaps other counties. It is understood that he is acting pay master for both of these districts.

Milwaukee News.—"We sometimes wonder what old John Brown whose body lies mouldering in the grave while his soul goes marching on would say if he could come upon the earth and read Grant's latest proclamation in regard to South Carolina. The stern old man's love of liberty would make him blush for the country that has sunk so low as to be governed by military despotism."

The New York Times recently recognizes the incongruity of the thing by writing a solemn editorial upon "the Military in a Republic" and showing them to be as harmless as reptiles in Iceland—leaving not having anything of the sort. The Times evidently sees what a fool the Republican party is making of itself in sending troops to South Carolina to interfere with local affairs and overawe the people.

While Federal troops are hurried to South Carolina to aid in perpetuating Chamberlain's rule of fraud and violence an American named John Jay Smith has lain for weeks in the calaboose at Matamoros, Mexico, having been arrested on a political charge, held without examination abused and menaced with death. Even Mexico, torn by revolutions, and weakened by never-ceasing strife, is not afraid to maltreat American citizens in a way that would call forth the prompt and decided remonstrance of any third-rate European power. The pusillanimity of Grant's policy abroad is almost as notorious as the corruption of his administration at home.

PERSONAL.

All who have moved their residences since last election must get their transfers and register at their present locality on Saturday next. Don't neglect it.

Portland has a man so dreadfully mean that he won't let his wife, from whom he has been separated, strew flowers on the grave of their little boy.

Southern papers are asking whether Don Cameron is a fool. Anything else you may call him, gentlemen, but don't make the mistake of calling him a fool.

Thomas Jefferson and Patrick Henry, the two early statesmen who roused American sentiment, were amateurs of the violin, according to the Danbury News.

"Out of Savages," says professor Tyndall, "unable to count up to the number of their fingers, and speaking a language containing only nouns and verbs, arise at length our Newtons and Shakespeares."

In 1874, under the last year of Gov. Dix's administration, the State of New York was taxed $15,727,482 80. In 1876 under Governor Tilden's administration the State is taxed $8,529,174 32, or a fraction over one-half as much as the tax two years ago under Republican administration.

THE REASON WHY.

The constitutional amendments should be ratified:

1. Because they authorize the Legislature to pass penal statutes against carrying concealed weapons, and thereby prevent the sneaking of blood in private banks;

2. Because secret political societies, which have wrought much harm in North Carolina, are declared without the pale of law;

3. Because the sessions of the general assembly are arranged to commence biennially at the beginning of the year after the next;

4. Because the executive power is put in the hands of one man, and members of the house of representatives are made to commence at the time of their elections;

5. Because the terms of senators and members of the house of representatives are made to commence at the time of their elections;

6. Because the elections in the State are now to be held in November, and the general assembly is empowered to alter the time of holding elections when it shall deem proper;

7. Because the pay and mileage of members of the Legislature are fixed and defined at sums both reasonable and economical;

8. Because the sessions of the Legislature are limited, and the prerogatives for effective work increased;

9. Because there is no restriction placed upon the large power of appointment now vested in the Governor;

10. Because the cultural, mining and other industrial interests of the State are to be provided for by the establishment of a department of agriculture, immigration and statistics;

11. Because the want felt for a better sort of court lower than the superior is provided for;

12. Because the present number of judges and justices is to be reduced from five to three, the number formerly on that august tribunal, thus ensuring a good work for less money;

13. Because the supreme court's jurisdiction over "cases of fact" and questions of fact is to be removed, and the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and writs of error is given to the inferior courts;

14. Because the superior courts are to be reorganized, and made more effective by reducing the number of judges and by using the judges to their own benefit;

15. Because the term of offices elected under the constitution is made certain and not at the caprice of partisan supreme judges;

16. Because proceedings held before judges and justices in both criminal and civil cases are to be made more regular and definite, and the powers of magistrates circumscribed;

17. Because judges of all the courts and clerks of the same are removable on the petition of a jury of twelve, and the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and writs of error is given to the inferior courts;

18. Because, and this is a most important amendment, no person convicted of an infamous crime or offense is to be allowed to vote unless his disability is removed;

19. Because a residence of ninety days in the county is required for voters, is each of thirty, or less;

20. Because full power is given to the Legislature to alter the provisions of the constitution relating to municipal corporations, except sections forbidding holding debts and excessive taxation;

21. Because provision is made for the separate education with equal facilities of the white and colored races in the public schools of the State;

22. Because certain moneys are secured by law to the counties, for the maintenance of a system of system of public education;

23. Because convict labor on our public works, railroads and other highways is authorized;

24. Because the subject of constitutional conventions is removed from public discussion by a provision that no convention of the people shall ever be called by the general assembly unless by concurrence of two-thirds of the members of each house, and except the proposition, "convention" or "to convene" be first submitted to the qualified voters of the whole State, at the next general election, in a manner prescribed by law;

25. Because no alteration of the constitution shall take place by the assembly unless the bill to effect the same shall have been agreed to by three-fifths of each house, and the amendment or amendments ratified by the people at the next general election in a manner prescribed by law;

The spectacle of the United States troops at this moment marching from the East and West and concentrating on the little State of South Carolina in these times of profound peace would be ridiculous were it not so gross, unlawful and stupid in its features, and the prospect on which it is based so false. The Washington Capital says, and it is to be hoped truly, that this policy of administration towards the South is certain to react. The President's proclamation is itself a blunder, a scheme that will bludge a blunder. There could not be a better campaign document, says the Capital. Yes, no true American opposing the dominant party but what would prefer to force such an advantage than witness the spectacle now wantonly presented to our eyes.—Baltimore Sun.

We must poll the last white vote in the District on November 7th, and in order to do this every vote must be registered on Saturday next.

Omaha Herald.—"The bloody shirt was lately bleached in Indiana and West Virginia. New York will bleach the hateful rag out of existence."
